

THE WESTON A. PRICE FOUNDATION®

for Wise Traditions in Food, Farming and the Healing Arts

Financial Aid Application

The Wise Traditions Conference is offering waived registration fee (subject to availability) for qualified applicants. We will offer financial aid to those demonstrating a clear financial need. Priority will be given to those who have not previously received financial aid. Unless physically not able, financial aid recipients will be asked to volunteer 6 hours of their time.

Instructions:

On a separate single sheet of paper, please attach a brief explanation of how financial aid assistance would enable you to attend the conference and how the Wise Traditions 2012 Conference would benefit, you, your family, and/or your organization. Please include information on your current financial situation which has led you to this request for aid. This must be included with this application page. All requests for financial aid must be received by July 31, 2012. All applicants will be notified of status by August 3, 2012.

Wise Traditions 2012 will award only one (1) waived registration fee per family/organization/group at the same mailing address. Waived registration will include entry to conference Friday, Saturday and Sunday and conference meals provided that day. This does not include hotel or travel expenses.

For those not receiving a waived registration due to financial aid, we will guarantee you the lowest/early conference rate.

We will confirm receipt of your application.
